

Call for Native Artists

Montana, Idaho, Washington State

A Trail Marker Logo Design Project

The American Indian and Alaska Native Tourism Association (AIANTA), in partnership with the USDA Forest Service and the Pacific Northwest Trail Association (PNTA), is requesting proposals from Native artists to create a new service mark (logo) that will serve as the visual identity of the Pacific Northwest National Scenic Trail (PNT).

This work is your chance to:

- Develop an original design honoring PNT regions.
- Become part of the PNT's official visual identity.
- Be featured on AIANTA's website and receive a $2,500 commission!

Who can apply?

Native artists or tribally endorsed artists from Montana, Idaho, and Washington State.

Application deadline: February 28, 2025

How to apply:

1. Scan the QR code to access the online application form.
2. In your submission, include:
 - A description of your proposed design approach for the logo.
 - A small portfolio showcasing your previous artwork.

Learn more or have questions?

Contact Eric Villegas, (505) 581-4646, evillegas@aianta.org

Your design could shape one of the eleven federally registered National Scenic Trail Service Markers!

Credit: Tri-County EDD

Thank You Sponsors and Partners!

PACIFIC NORTHWEST TRAIL
ASSOCIATION

Forest Service
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE